

LAGAVULIN™
Islay Jazz
FESTIVAL

13TH - 15TH SEPTEMBER 2013

Presented by Jazz Scotland and Islay Arts Association

WELCOME TO THE 2013 LAGAVULIN ISLAY JAZZ FESTIVAL

Once again, we present a programme of international music, from across the jazz and blues spectrum in all the great settings that make Lagavulin Islay Jazz Festival such a magical event. This year, amongst many highlights, we have first visits by Magnus Öström, Trio Libero, and Stephanie Trick, and the return of many Islay favourites, including a new trio featuring Colin Steele, Mario Caribe and Graeme Stephen.

With concerts all over the island, the musical fare mirrors the changing landscape and with a range of choices, you can make up your own Festival itinerary to suit your interests, but don't miss the opportunity to sample some Islay fare at many of the concerts - from hand dived scallops to local chocolates to homebaking, and, of course, Lagavulin™.

For visitors new to the island, there's a championship golf-course, a bird watching walk, long sandy beaches, wonderful places to stay and eat and drink...

We hope to see old and new friends for another great weekend of music on Islay.

Fiona Alexander Jazz Scotland
Stuart Todd Islay Arts Association

Stephanie Trick

FRIDAY 13TH

1. Stephanie Trick

Amazing stride, ragtime and boogie woogie piano played by new American star, making her Islay debut. Playing classics by James P. Johnson, Fats Waller and Willie The Lion Smith.

Friday 13th September 6.30-7.30pm, Lagavulin Distillery, £10

Islay Chocolate Company Showcase
Light suppers available

2. Sandy Tweedale and Tim Elliott

Tim Elliott's impassioned vocal and harmonica sit alongside Sandy Tweedale's traditional blues guitar mastery.

Friday 13th September 8-9.30pm, Ionad Chaluum Chille, e, £10

3. Trio Libero

ECM superband featuring Andy Sheppard (saxophones), Michel Benita (bass), Sebastian Rochford (drums). It blends folk melodies, catchy tunes, infectious grooves, and some spare, spacious and ambient Nordic cool.

"A delight of swaying tempos, unresolved tensions and subtle textures" (Financial Times).

Friday 13th September 8.30-10pm, Lagavulin Distillery, £18

4. Grooveyard

Blues-drenched, funky-struttin', depression-busting music. Soul jazz of the 1960's to 70's with the trademark Hammond grooves, soaring saxophone and fizzing guitar.

Friday 13th September 10.30pm-midnight, Bruichladdich Hall, £10, BYOB

Magnus Öström

SATURDAY 14TH

5. Stephanie Trick, Jazz Band Nova Scotia

Hot jazz Chicago style, delivered with real drive and passion. Nova Scotia are part of a new breed of younger musicians revisiting the exciting music of traditional jazz. Stephanie opens the show with some dazzling stride piano.

Saturday 14th September noon-2pm, Rhinns Hall, Portnahaven, £12

Light lunches available

6. Calum Gourlay Trio

Captivating melodic tunes from leading Scottish bass player joined by Kit Downes (piano) and James Maddren (drums).

Saturday 14th September 12.30-2.30pm, Lagavulin Distillery, £10

Light lunches available

11.30am Distillery Tour

Graeme Stephen

Trio Libero

Grooveyard

7. Mario Caribe, Colin Steele, Graeme Stephen

Bass, trumpet and guitar: three Islay favourites get together for the first time in a special jazz chamber group.

Saturday 14th September 3.30-5pm, Laphroaig Distillery, £12

8. 95 Roots Wednesday Gray

Laid back traditional blues from Islay band featuring Sheena Swanson (vocals), Ellie MacGregor (fiddle), Ciara MacTaggart (accordion), Dunstan Gallery (acoustic guitar), John Saich (electric bass) and Brian Palmer (drums). Wednesday Gray delivers blues tunes with a sassy edge, inspired by Dinah Washington.

Saturday 14th September 7-9pm, Ionad Chaluum Chille, £10

9. Magnus Öström Band

Magnus Olstrom has confidently stepped out of EST's huge shadow to assert himself as a central figure in the new European Jazz scene. The master drummer leads a great quartet.

Saturday 14th September 8.30-10pm, Lagavulin Distillery, £18

Blues N Trouble

10. Blues N Trouble

The top Scottish blues band delivers a hard driving, good time blues and boogie night. They have played alongside Robert Cray, Pinetop Perkins, Charlie Musselwhite, Buddy Guy and Junior Wells – top drawer classic blues.

Saturday 15th September, 9.30-11.30pm, Bruichladdich Hall, £12, BYOB

SUNDAY 15TH

11. Mario Caribe, Graeme Stephen, Chris Wallace

Ambition, imagination, nous, harmonic adventure and sonic experiments based on catchy tunes from bass, guitar, drums.

Sunday 15th September, noon-2pm, RSPB, £10

Light lunches available

11am Birdwatching walk

12. Stephanie Trick, Wednesday Gray

Wednesday Gray's pure old school voice covers classic jazz tunes whilst Stephanie Trick plays boogie woogie, ragtime and stride piano.

Sunday 15th September noon-2pm, Ardbeg Distillery, £12

Light lunches available

13. Mario Caribe, Colin Steele, Graeme Stephen

Bass, trumpet and guitar: three Islay favourites deliver lyrical swirling improvisations blending folk and jazz.

Sunday 15th September 3.30-5pm, Outback Gallery, £12

14. Kit Downes Trio

Walking a line between the improvised and the composed, revealing a truly eclectic mix of influences, from Bela Bartok to Bill Frisell to David Lynch. Sometimes lyrical, sometimes orchestral. Always current. With Calum Gourlay (bass) and James Maddren (drums).

Sunday 15th September 6-7.30pm, Ionad Chaluum Chille e, £12

15. Magnus Öström Band

An intoxicating mix of jazz; brooding post-rock and electronica and sweeping cinematic soundscapes. He is joined by Daniel Karlsson (keys), Andreas Houdarkis (guitar) Tobias Gabrielson (bass).

Sunday 15th September 8.30-10.30pm, Bruichladdich Hall, £15, BYOB

Wednesday Gray

LAGAVULIN™

One of Scotland's "essential" distilleries, Lagavulin is a place of pilgrimage for many adorers of this definitive Islay single malt Scotch whisky. The distillery works its magic on a cramped, romantic site by the sea, across a small bay from the ruins of Dunyvaig Castle. The intensity of this majestic malt comes from the heavily peated barley from the Port Ellen Maltings; the four traditionally-shaped copper stills; a leisurely fermentation and distillation regime, with a wide spirit cut that captures more of the richly-peated tastes; and a long maturation of 16 years in refill American oak.

For more information please visit www.malts.com

Iain's Warehouse Experience: £15

A behind the scenes look into our bonded warehouse. Iain McArthur demonstrates warehousing skills and maturation and shares a dram with our Lagavulin angels. Tastes from 3 casks included.

Friday 13 Sept - 10.30 & 13.30

Saturday 14 Sept - 10.30 & 13.30

Sunday 15 Sept - 10.30

Lagavulin Distillery Tours: £6

Daily at 9.30, 11.30, 12.30, 14.30, 15.30

Please book direct with the Distillery:
01496 302749

PLEASE DRINK RESPONSIBLY CHECK
WWW.DRINKAWARE.CO.UK FOR THE FACTS

drinkaware.co.uk

Thanks to: LAGAVULIN™

PRESENTED BY: Jazz Scotland and Islay Arts Association

Contact: Fiona@jazzscotland.com

If phoning from outwith the UK please call
+44 131 467 3660

Getting there

by Ferry: from Kennacraig: www.calmac.co.uk
Kennacraig: 2.5 hours from Glasgow / City Link bus:
08705 505050

By plane: www.flybe.com

Accommodation

Tourist Office: 01496 810254 / www.visitscotland.com

Travel on Islay

Taxis: Lamont Campbell (07899 756159);
Carol's Cabs (07775 782155);
Fiona Livingstone (07808 303200);
Rhinns Taxis (07771 921157)
Andrew Mceachern (07899 942673)

Car Hire: D&N MacKenzie (01496 302300)
Islay Car Hire (01496 810544)

WEEKENDER TICKET

Ticket: £85 – guarantees admission to eight specified concerts OR seven specific and one wild card - which is either redeemable by 12th September* – or (subject to availability) on the door

TICKETS FOR INDIVIDUAL CONCERTS

Available from 2nd August to 12th September from:

0845 111 0302 (0131 467 3660)

Or online at www.islayjazzfestival.co.uk

Tickets MAY be available on the door, please note that many capacities are limited, so we strongly recommend advance booking.

* please call 0845 111 0302 to specify by 12th September – tickets are subject to availability.

Until 4th September, unto 4 hour before concerts:

Celtic Craft Shop, Main Street, Bowmore 01496 810262

(Open: 10am-5pm, closed for lunch 1-2pm. Closed on Sunday)

ISLAY PHOTOS: ARGYLL, THE ISLES, STIRLING & TROSSACHS TOURIST BOARD, SHUTTERSTOCK

COVER PHOTO: COLIN ROBERTSON (ICON)

ARTIST PHOTOS: KIT DOWNS TRIO - HELENA DORNELLAS, TRIO LIBERO - MALCOLM WATSON

DESIGNED BY: EDENCONSULTANCYGROUP.CO.UK

Tickets www.islayjazzfestival.co.uk | Information 0845 111 0302

ISLAY'S CLASSIC MALT

Among all the malts of Islay, one stands alone.

Enjoyed as an award-winning 16 year old, a natural cask strength 12 year old or an intense Distiller's Edition finished in Pedro Ximenez cask wood, Lagavulin embodies richness and power.

White-washed distillery buildings tumble down to the shore in Lagavulin Bay, guarded still by the lonely Dunnyvaig Castle, historic stronghold of the all-powerful Lord of the Isles.

Rich reward lies within.

LAGAVULIN DISTILLERY, PORT ELLEN, ISLE OF ISLAY PA42 7DZ TEL 01496 302400

drinkaware.co.uk for the facts